DESCRIPTION OF INFRASTRUCTURE MANAGER 'S ROLE

The Infrastructure Manager is responsible for managing the project to successfully accomplish the upgrade of the whole RI. She/he oversees the evolving status of the project and monitors the regular development of the activities planned in WPs, in close cooperation with the Scientific Coordinator and the Units scientific responsible. She/he is responsible of the compliant and timely execution of all the Deliverable, by checking for their preparation and quality. She/he is responsible of the attainment of the intermediate Objectives and she/he is expected to identify technical and managerial problems as early as possible and, in case, to implement the risk mitigation actions foreseen. She/he oversees the organization financial performance, also proposing and implementing the most appropriate management tools to keep track of all activities and to efficiently coordinate the partners contributions. In cooperation with the financial officer, she/he monitors the accounting procedures and promotes use of coordinated procedures for equipment purchases. The Infrastructure Manager executes the infrastructure strategy, coordinates the Project Management Board and reports to the Steering Board. The expected profile is a senior manager with proven experience in managing complex infrastructures and systems, control ability of the operational aspects of a high-tech laboratory network integrated and operated within a distributed Research Infrastructure. Specific knowledge and expertise directly related the nature of research being conducted in the facility is an asset. The candidate should have strong leadership and excellent interpersonal skills.

REQUIREMENTS

- More than 12 years working experience preferably in scientific research infrastructure
- Self-driven, able to lead team work and take ownership of projects and responsibilities.
- Empathetic and communicative person, who enjoys working in collaborative projects
- Good written and spoken communication skills in Italian
- Good knwoledge of Italian public procurement procedures.

The list of mandatary requirements is available in Italian on the official call available here.